CELEBRATE NATIONAL DAY (MARCH):

TODAY: When it comes to a National Day, a chocolate-covered raisin or a box of them is worth celebrating. On March 24th, National Chocolate Covered Raisin Day celebrates raisins coated in a shell of either milk chocolate or dark chocolate.

Moviegoers have been snacking on chocolate-covered raisins for many, many years.

Somehow, popcorn, a box of chocolate-covered raisins go together perfectly. It doesn't matter the kind of movie either. Chocolate-covered raisins are also a conventional bulk vending item across the country. More than 1 million Raisinets are produced per hour.

In some countries, chocolate-covered raisins are known as Raisinets. Raisinets produced the first and one of the most popular brands of the product. Currently made by Nestle, they are the third-largest selling candy in United States history. The Blumenthal Chocolate Company introduced the Raisinets to the United States in 1927, and then in 1984, Nestle acquired the brand. However, a large number of other brands produce chocolate-covered raisins for us to enjoy.

Raisins are an excellent source of calcium, potassium, iron, fiber, and vitamin B. When you combine the raisins with dark chocolate, you have a great-tasting, healthy snack.

Thank you.

Remember...WE ARE WAPPINGERS !!
