

What is the Career Development and Occupational Studies (CDOS) Commencement Credential?

Come Find Out...

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 2019

6:30 - 8:30 PM

New Paltz High School Audion
130 South Putt Corners Rd., New Paltz

This FREE workshop will provide an overview of the requirements for an optional certificate of work-readiness that any student (who is not participating in the NYS Alternate Assessment testing program) can earn, to increase knowledge and experience needed for entry-level employment opportunities. This credential can be used to meet the requirements for the fifth Regents exam needed to graduate with a diploma. A panel of guest speakers will discuss:

- * Examples of work-based learning opportunities offered in different types of programs
- * Challenges and suggestions for program development, coordination and documenting activities
- * Considerations for family involvement and partner engagement

Parents, educators, service providers, advocates and the general community are encouraged to attend!

REGISTER online by 10/21/19

<https://forms.gle/PBuc3fD1sZGqqAMU9> or visit <https://www.nyspecialtaskforce.org/>

*Registration is needed to inform participants if a workshop is cancelled due to inclement weather or unexpected reasons

Guest Speakers

- ◆ Joyce M. Hawk, Community & Family Educator, WIHD
- ◆ Stephen T. Casa, Workplace Learning Coordinator, Ulster BOCES Career & Technical Center
- ◆ Laurie Gallagher, Youth Pre-Employment Manager/ENRICH Program, The Arc Mid-Hudson
