VISIT DCC

EARLY ADMISSIONS/BRIDGE
INFORMATION NIGHT FOR HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS & SOPHOMORES

Tuesday, November 28 at 5:30 p.m.
Bowne Hall, Room 122

Are you interested in taking college credits at DCC before you graduate from high school? Students are welcome to take courses at the main campus or DCC South once they complete their sophomore year. In addition, high school seniors may qualify to attend DCC full-time in their senior year and transfer credits back to high school for graduation purposes.

Please join us on Tuesday, November 28, to learn more about these opportunities to get a jump-start on your college career while in high school.

VISIT DCC

Learn why more students than ever are choosing Dutchess Community College – part of the State University of New York – for an enriching, affordable start on the first two years of a bachelor’s degree, or to prepare for a career. You’ll find more than 60 programs, outstanding faculty, remarkable transfer opportunities and a lively, engaging, collaborative campus community.

Plus, tuition at DCC is the lowest in the state – just $3,528 per year – enabling you to save tens of thousands of dollars on freshman and sophomore classes. The addition of beautiful new suite-style housing makes DCC especially attractive for those students seeking an on-campus residential experience.

ABOUT THE AREA

Dutchess Community College’s main campus is in Poughkeepsie at the center of New York’s beautiful and historic Hudson River Valley. A satellite campus is in Wappingers Falls at the southern end of Dutchess County. Just 90 miles south of Albany and 80 miles north of Manhattan, the area is renowned for historic landmarks (including the home and museum of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Eleanor Roosevelt’s Val-Kill retreat and the Samuel Morse estate), the Walkway Over the Hudson, scenic hiking and biking trails, educational institutions including Vassar and Marist colleges, SUNY New Paltz and the Culinary Institute of America, restaurants, festivals and more. Shopping malls, movie theaters, an ice skating rink and other recreational activities are within a short drive and a Monday-through-Saturday bus service offers students free transportation between the College and various locations.

GETTING TO CAMPUS

Dutchess Community College is located at 53 Pendell Road in Poughkeepsie, NY. The most convenient parking for visitors is Lot E on Creek Road. Other parking is available in Lot D on Cottage Road and, after 5 p.m., in Lot A on Pendell Road. The College also is easily accessible by Metro-North and Amtrak train service.

The Dutchess County LOOP bus provides a direct connection between the Poughkeepsie train station and the College, as well as service to main points including the county transit hub. The fare is $1.75; $.75 for high school students with ID and free for DCC students.
