

Do you believe in music education?

Courtesy of Music for All

Music Education...

Develops skills needed by the 21st century workforce:

- Critical thinking
- Creative problem solving
- Innovation
- Effective communication
- Team work

Music Education...

helps students achieve in other academic subjects like math, science and reading.

helps communities share ideas and values among cultures and generations.

is a disciplined human endeavor with intrinsic value to society.

Students involved in music score an average of

102 points higher on the SAT than students not involved in music.

Three quarters of Fortune 1000 executives were involved in some type of music program while in school.

The longer executives participated in music programs, the more successful they became in life.

Students who participate in school band or orchestra have the lowest levels of current and lifelong use of alcohol, tobacco and drugs among any group in our society.

Courtesy of Music for All

96%

of public school principals believe that participating in music education encourages and motivates students to stay in school longer.

Courtesy of Music for All

Music for All provides positively life-changing experiences for 100,000

students each year.

Courtesy of Music for All

300,000

fans, parents, teachers and students attend Music for All events each year.

Courtesy of Music for All

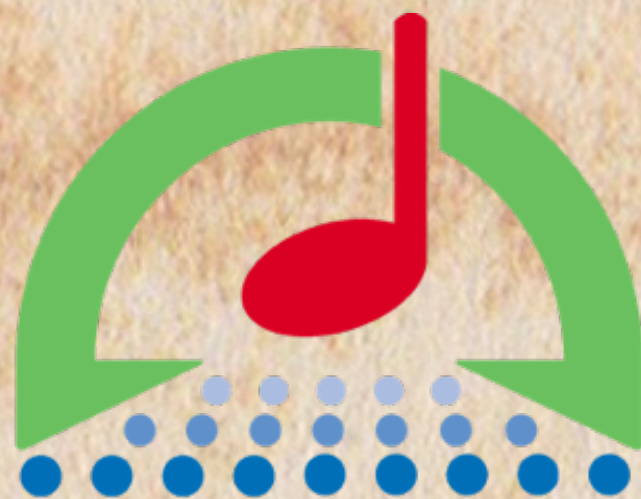

“I often think in music. I live my daydreams in music. I see my life in terms of music.”

– Albert Einstein

Courtesy of Music for All

I believe in music education.

I believe in...

Music for All

Our mission is to create, provide and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all.

Program information and advocacy resources at www.musicforall.org

Courtesy of Music for All

Programs of Music for All

Courtesy of Music for All

Support Music _com

Brought to you by NAMM® and NAfME

Courtesy of Music for All