Exploring Visual Basic

Change the text property of your Form to Coding Practice
Layout
Set Text to Coding Practice

Create a label
Layout, change AutoSize to FALSE
Set Size to 150,50
Set Text property to blank

Design
Set (Name) to lblGreeting

Create two buttons
Design
Set (Name) to btnHello   Set (Name) to btnGoodbye
Layout
Set Text property to Hello   Set Text property to Goodbye

Double click on the Hello button and type in the following code:
```
lblGreeting.Text = "Hello John Jay"
```

Double click on the Goodbye button and type in the following code:
```
lblGreeting.Text = "Goodbye America"
```

Double click on the Hello button and add the following line of code:
```
btnHello.BackColor = Color.Red
```

Double click on the Goodbye button and add the following line of code:
```
lblGreeting.ForeColor = Color.Red lblGreeting.BackColor = Color.Yellow
```

Adjust the properties for the label
Appearance to increase font size and make bold (font), center the text (text align)

Make additional changes through the Properties window or the coding screen.
Add additional button or label to the form.