

Arrow Arum

Height: to 2 ft
Habitat: tidal fresh and slightly brackish marshes, inland marshes and shallow waters of ponds and lakes

Technical Name: Peltandra virginica
Common Name: Arrow Arum
Family Name: Araceae
Distinctive Characteristics:
 General: emergent aquatic plant
 Flowers: inconspicuous on spadix within elongate spathe, spadix and spathe recline with age
 Leaves: narrow to broad, arrow-shaped, 4 to 12" and larger, note distinctive vein pattern