

WAPPINGERS CONTINUING EDUCATION PRESENTS

“Admissions & Financial Aid: What it Takes to Get into College Today”

This is a valuable FREE seminar for all parents & their high school students.

In this class you will learn:

- A time-line for success – where to start in the college planning process
- The importance of the SAT & ACT & how they can make college affordable
- What the more selective colleges really want to see in your student’s application
- The financial aid systems, how they work, and why it’s important to have your family contribution (EFC) calculated BEFORE your student begins visiting colleges
- How to maximize your student’s potential to receive scholarships, grants & forms of merit aid
- The differences between the FAFSA and CSS Profile financial aid forms and how they affect the cost of college
- What financial aid really means to a family and how need is determined
- The parental, student, and other family assets that take away from qualifying for financial aid
- The differences between federal and private loan programs
- How it is possible to attend a private college for a public college price
- Two case studies showing how college planning makes a difference...and much, much more!

Two chances to attend:

Thursday, February 13th
6:30-8:00 p.m.
