

WAPPINGERS CONTINUING EDUCATION PRESENTS

“Creating Your Path to College”

This is a valuable FREE seminar for high school students who plan on attending college

High school years are critical in the college planning process. There are so many items that need to be done & dates you need to be aware of. This class will give students the time line for their high school years that will get them ready to apply to colleges.

Students will learn how to keep track of important events & successes in high school and create a resume they can continue to work with as they progress through school. In addition, they will learn about the differences in the ACT & SAT tests and gain an understanding as to which test suits them best.

Two chances to attend:

Date: Thurs., March 26, 2020

Time: 2:25-3:30 p.m.
